ABOUT TIM O'HARE

Tim O'Hare, the firm's founder, is an experienced personal injury lawyer who has represented thousands of clients in the Dallas-Fort Worth area, throughout Texas, and all across the United States. Tim was born and raised in Dallas, Texas. A graduate of R.L. Turner High School in Carrollton, Texas, Tim attended The University of Texas at Austin where he received a BBA in Finance and lettered on the Texas football team. He attended law school at Southern Methodist University and practiced law with a downtown Dallas insurance defense firm, as well as one of the largest personal injury firms in the Metroplex, prior to founding The Law Offices of Tim O'Hare in 2001.

Tim and his wife Christen are members of First Baptist Church of Carrollton. As a personal injury lawyer, Tim is also a member of the Christian Legal Society and the Alliance Defense Fund, a Christian organization dedicated to preserving Christian rights and ideals in the United States. In addition, Tim recently served as President of the Farmers Branch Rotary Club and currently serves on its Board of Directors. Tim also serves as the Mayor of Farmers Branch.

Tim has appeared on numerous national news programs including Fox & Friends, NBC's Today Show, CNN's Lou Dobbs Tonight, as well as local affiliates for CBS, NBC, ABC, FOX and WB. He is a sought-after guest speaker and has spoken to numerous student, business and political groups throughout Texas. Tim has received numerous accolades during his career, including being named one of the Top Ten Texans of the Year by The Dallas Morning News, and Texan of the Year by Talk Radio 570 KLIF.
